NOTICE TO DEFENDANT BEFORE TRIAL

If you agree that you owe the amount claimed, it may not be necessary for you to come to Court. Contact the Plaintiff if you wish to make payment. If you are appearing in court on the trial date, bring letters, receipts, and contracts which may help you. If you need a witness, contact the Clerk's office about a summons to the witness.

NOTICE IF JUDGMENT IS ENTERED

If the Court awards judgment in this case to the Plaintiff, you as the Judgment Debtor, may do several things before submitting payment to satisfy the judgment. One is to appeal the decision to the circuit court sitting in that District. This is what's involved in an APPEAL of a District Court judgment—

1. 30 DAYS—You would have 30 days from the day of an adverse judgment within which to note your appeal at the District Court and there pay the higher court's filing fee. If you qualify as indigent, you may at that time petition the District Court to waive the collection of this fee.
2. TRANSCRIPT COSTS—If the amount which you were sued was $5,000 or less (not counting interest or attorney's fees), the circuit court would hear your appeal as an entirely new case from start to finish. Therefore, no transcripts from the District Court trial would be necessary. If, however, this amount should exceed $5,000, the higher court would hear your appeal on the record of what transpired in the District Court. That appeal requires a transcript of the District Court trial record. For information and costs to obtain a transcript refer to the Transcripts and Recordings brochure DCA 27 available at the clerk's office.

Another option after an adverse judgment is to file a MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL.

1. 10 DAYS—You have 10 days from day of judgment to do this.
2. GRANT/DENY—If the Court grants your motion, you will receive a summons to a new trial.

The last options are to file MOTIONS to change the JUDGMENT.

1. 10 DAYS for ALTERING or AMENDING the judgment.
2. 30 DAYS for REVISING the judgment.

If you would not want to move on any of these options, then you should make all possible arrangements with the Plaintiff or the Plaintiff's attorney to pay the judgment amount. Should you not do this, the Plaintiff could request the Court's enforcement powers.

These enforcement procedures include—

1. INTERROGATORIES—This is an attempt to locate any assets you may have. This requires written answers.
2. ORAL EXAMINATION—Another attempt to locate any assets you may have. This requires your appearing in court to answer questions. The Court backs up these plaintiff attempts at discovery by bringing its contempt powers to bear on an unresponsive defendant. More stringent enforcements you should know about include—
3. WRIT OF EXECUTION—Such a writ could order the levying or seizure and sale of any of your goods. And you, in such a circumstance, would bear the expenses of the seizure (e.g. towing, moving, storage fees, auctioneer's fees, advertising costs). Some of your goods are, by their nature, exempt from such action—
 - (a) Wearing apparel, books, tools, instruments, or appliances necessary for the practice of any trade or profession, except those kept for sale, lease, or barter, in an amount not to exceed $5,000 in value.
 - (b) Money payable in the event of sickness, accident, injury, or death of any person, including compensation for loss of future earnings. This exemption includes but is not limited to money payable on account of judgments, arbitrations, compromises, insurance benefits, compensation and relief. Disability income benefits are not exempt if the judgment is for necessities contracted for after the disability occurred.
 - (c) Professionally prescribed health aids for you or any of your dependents.
 - (d) Your interest, not to exceed $1,000 in value, in household goods, wearing apparel, appliances, books, animals kept as pets, and other items that are held primarily for personal family or household use by you or your dependents.
 - (e) Cash or property of any kind equivalent in value to $6,000, if within 30 days from the date of the attachment or levy you elect to exempt cash or selected items of property in an amount not to exceed a cumulative value of $6,000.
4. GARNISHMENT OF PROPERTY—Such a writ, attaching certain assets of yours in the hands of someone else, would order that other party (e.g. bank holding your account, agent) to hold the asset subject to further court proceedings.
5. GARNISHMENT OF WAGES—Such a writ would order your employer to begin withholding from your wages the amount left over after deducting what is lawfully required and after exempting money that may not be garnished.

Exemptions from garnishment—

 - (1) the greater of (a) 75 percent of the disposable wages due;
 - OR (b) 30 times the federal minimum hourly wages under the Fair Labor Standards Act in effect at the time the wages are due;
 - AND (2) any medical insurance payment deducted from an employee's wages by the employer. Other federal exemptions may be available. Disposable wages means the part of wages that remain after deduction of any amount required to be withheld by law. Finally, should you become the Judgment Debtor you should know that judgment is public information and anyone may request a copy of it.

To Plaintiff: If the Court enters a judgment for a sum certain,
